

Sudan and South Sudan – Highlights of the Syllabus

DAY 1 - Introduction to Sudan and South Sudan: Modern History and Social Worlds

- The political history of Sudan and South Sudan
- The material basis of conflicts in the Sudans
- Migration and movement in the Sudans

DAY 2 - State Formation and Resistance

- The military and the state in Sudan and South Sudan
- Filling in 'voids' for governments in times of crises
- Protests and popular movements in the Sudans

DAY 3 - The Extractive State and Local Livelihoods

- How to make ends meet in the Sudans
- Food security, basic income and agricultural reforms
- The political economy of violence in Sudan and South Sudan

DAY 4 - Contemporary Conflicts and Political Change

- Religion and belief in Sudan and South Sudan
- Genealogies of insurgency and the state of armies
- Peace making and justice in the Sudans

DAY 5 - Interventions, Agreements and Future Prospects

- A history of interventions
- Humanitarianism and aid in the Sudans
- Future prospects and reflections

Teachers

Kuyang Logo, Lecturer, University of Juba

Alden Young, Assistant Professor, UCLA International Institute

Munzoul Assal, Professor, University of Khartoum

Nicki Kindersley, Cotemporary Historian and Lecturer, Cardiff University

David Deng, Human Rights Lawyer

Magdi el-Gizouli, Sudanese Academic & Fellow, Rift Valley Institute

Yasir Zeidan, PhD candidate, University of Washington

Leben Moro, University of Juba